

Program /Program specific/ course outcomes

Sr. no.	Program	Program/program specific/course outcomes
1.	M.Ed.	Students will get knowledge of various research methods.
		Students will learn various statistical techniques and how to apply them in research.
		Students will learn the academic & expository writings.
		Students will understand how to design curriculum
		Students will learn the evaluation system and different types of evaluation.
		Students will study the curriculum of different countries.
		Student will develop critical thinking.
2.	B.Ed.	Students will learn to use essential teaching skills, techniques and methods required for secondary school students.
		Students understand the child psychology of adolescent children to help them in learning.
		Students will learn the ways of using multi-media, tools, computers etc.
		Students will get first hands experience in real life situations.
		Students will develop language skills and be efficient in communication skills.
		Students will develop confidence to appear in different competitive exams
3.	D.Ed.	Students will get Govt. jobs in Primary Schools
		Students will know various teaching skills ,techniques and methods required for primary education
		Students will understand the physical and mental growth of 6-12 yrs. of children.
		Students will learn the ways of using play way methods of teaching –learning.
		Students will grow professionally as a teacher.
		Students will develop confidence to appear in different competitive exams